

2014 Annual Training

Guidelines for Responding to Student Threats of Violence

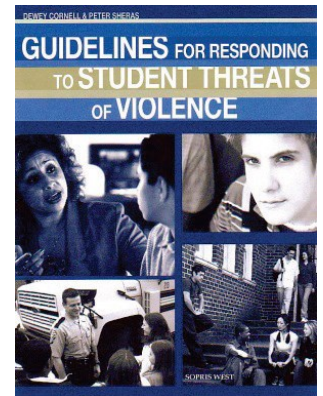

Sponsored by

When: June 13, 2014
8:00am - 5:00pm
Where: Public Safety Building
4630 15th Ave S
Fargo, ND 58102
Cost: FREE - Fully funded by NDDDES

Recommended:

Guidelines for Responding to Student Threats of Violence, Dewey Cornell & Peter Sheras. This publication is available on Amazon.

This is a one-day workshop on threat assessment training using the Guidelines for Responding to Student Threats of Violence approach. These Guidelines allow school-based teams to evaluate student threats of violence, quickly resolve less serious transient threats, and take appropriate action in response to more serious, substantive threats.

INTENDED AUDIENCE: School teams ordinarily consist of school administrators, mental health professionals (psychologists, counselors, social workers) and law enforcement officers.

REGISTRATION

Register online at the below link:

<http://www.nd.gov/des/events/>

Questions: Sgt. Tara Morris at the Cass County Sheriff's Office

ATTENTION PEACE

OFFICERS: This is a ND POST approved course.
MN POST approval pending

Dewey Cornell, Ph.D. is a forensic clinical psychologist and Professor of Education at the University of Virginia, where he holds the Bunker Chair in Education. Dr. Cornell directs the Virginia Youth Violence Project and has studied youth violence for 30 years. Dr. Cornell assisted the FBI's National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime in its study of school shootings and has consulted with many school divisions on safety and violence prevention. He has authored more than 200 publications in psychology and education, including Juvenile Homicide and School Violence: Fears versus Facts.

